Appendix B: Fernie Food Action Strategy

approach to food systems engagement. communities they nourish. This infographic Food systems are complex, as are the municipal services and activities. integrating food systems into existing It provides examples of actions for promotes a coherent and strategic

MUNICIPAL ROLE IN FOOD SYSTEMS

Created by the Central Kootenay Food Policy Council. Find out more at ckfoodpolicy.ca

FOOD SECURITY

an ongoing basis. exists when individuals and food to meet their needs on nouseholds have sufficient participate in food supply restaurants, distributors) that (farms, food processors, retailers, events that serve winter markets with indoor option for the Farmers Market pedestrian traffic for City venues and procurement at all for local food implement targets Establish and understanding of how food of food, and creates an harvesting, storage & cooking (re)builds skills for growing, ckfoodpolicy.ca/municipal-food/ Additional Resources available at:

FOOD ECONOMIES

FOOD LITERACY

are created by the businesses bylaws that permit develop and pass backyard options) barriers to food meat rabbits, and backyard flocks gardens on private Assess and remove lots (front, side and low or no cost for food compost available at waste composting and household organic Establish municipal and public gardens. production in private and make finished and use (harvest barriers to access activities; lower public food-related most suitable for city-owned land assessment of gardens, foodfestivals, community Undertake an cased events)

ECONOMIC WELL-BEING Collaborate with socia service agencies and available to those who are impoverished information on food forms to disseminate expertise and platnal communications use the city's inter-

expanding municipa of land suitable maintain a database up, not out; zone & boundaries, building for food-related

Ensure that higher and enables ready density housing access to venues to public transit on lower incomes particularly for those food services). including emergency with healthy food is well connected

ENVIRONMENTAL SUSTAINABILITY Commit to not

Municipal Governments in Canada Sectoral Responsibilities of

SOCIAL DEVELOPMENT

location with high Enable permanent and participate in a food policy council Charter; support Create a Food

Enable & Promote

beekeeping.

Bylaw or policy change

Repurpose internal resources (staff, infrastructure)

S New investment

KOOTENAY COUNCIL